

Facilities, Tooling & Risk Management Panel Meeting San Diego, California November 7 - 8, 2006

MEETING OVERVIEW

The Facilities, Tooling & Risk Management Panel's Workers' Compensation and Safety & Health Advisory Committees will hold their fall meeting in San Diego on November 7 - 8. This will be joint session, with agenda topics related to each discipline. The initial plan is to have the committees meet together on Tuesday morning (11/7), breakout Tuesday afternoon and the first part of Wednesday morning (11/8), reconvene for the 2nd half and tour NASSCO shipyard on Wednesday afternoon. Agenda topics and speakers are currently being developed and Committee members are encouraged to submit suggestions and ideas. From the workers' compensation perspective, we are currently looking at: an Overview of Medical Provider Networks and Evidence-Based Medicine Approach in California, Update on Permanent Partial Ratings for Hand Claims, Managing Psych/Stress Claims, and a Legal/Case Law Update. Some additional topics we are considering: Using Wellness Initiatives to Prevent Injuries, How Software Can Cut Your Workers' Compensation Costs and Lean from the Safety Perspective.
